

Marcia Huffman Estate

Established in 1996 (Marcia died in Feb/Mar.)

Designated for Youth

At the April 2001 Session Meeting the Education Committee requested that the fund be Renamed to be the Marcia Huffman Camp Donegal Scholarship Fund. Session approved this request.

Original Motion Motion to designate the Marcia Huffman Estate Fund for Camp Donegal Scholarships to be renamed The Marcia Huffman Camp Donegal Scholarship Fund. This has been discussed with Trustees by John Keagel during the committees April meeting. The Fund would provide money for children desiring to attend Camp Donegal whose parents cannot afford the cost.

RE: Estate of Marcia A. Huffman, deceased

Gentlemen:

This office serves as attorney for the Estate of Marcia A. Huffman, who died on December 20, 1995.

Under the Codicil of October 20, 1995, a bequest was left to Eastminster Presbyterian Church, in the amount of $5,000.00. A copy of the Codicil is enclosed for your information.

Please send me a letter, giving me your correct corporate name, your federal identification number, and an indication of your acceptance of the bequest.

We will endeavor to make distribution within ten months from the date hereof.

Very truly yours,

Samuel F. Meisenhelder

Enc: Codicil

cc: Mr. James B. Huffman

10/20/95

I, Marcia Huffman, wish to add the following Codicil to my last will and testament of April 24, 1985.

As I prepare to leave for Denver, Colorado for a bone marrow transplant, I wish to let the following addition to my will be known in case I do not survive the transplant.

For all of the love and support that I have received from Eastminster Presbyterian Church, its ministers, and members over the last two and one-half years that I have had cancer, I wish to leave Eastminster Church, 311 Haines Rd, York, Pa. the sum of five thousand ($5000.00) dollars to be deducted from the sum of money due me in March 1996 as the result of the sale of my Ocean City property last year.

This $5000.00 is to be paid to Eastminster Church when the Maryland money is received into my estate and to be used by Eastminster at their discretion but in a way that will directly benefit the children of the church.

I write this codicil without my husband's direct knowledge (so as not to upset him) but I hope with his and my children's future understanding and blessing!

Signed,
Marcia A. Huffman
